Photo Credits and Captions

1. Joanne H. Patton's wedding dress, accessories, and General George S. Patton IV's wedding uniform. Joanne wore the dress for her marriage to George S. Patton IV at Washington National Cathedral on June 14, 1952. Their daughter, Helen Ayer Patton, also wore the dress for her marriage to Thorsten Plusczyk at St. Paul's Church in Hamilton, Massachusetts, on July 8, 1995. Joanne's preserved ensemble includes a veil and headpiece, shoes, gloves, slip, ring pillow, and purse.
   Courtesy of Wenham Museum Collections.
2. An Army Wife's Cookbook with Household Hints and Home Remedies. This spiral-bound cookbook brings together recipes, household hints, and remedies originally written by Alice Kirk Grierson in the nineteenth century and compiled and edited by Mary L. Williams in 1972.
   Courtesy of Wenham Museum Collections.
3. General George S. Patton, Jr., action figure from the G.I. Joe Classic Collection: Historical Commanders Edition.
   Courtesy of Wenham Museum Collections.
4. The General's Office at the Patton Homestead in Hamilton, Massachusetts.
   Courtesy of Wenham Museum Collections.
5. Ruth Ellen Ayer and Beatrice Ayer Patton enjoying a tea party.
   Courtesy of Wenham Museum Collections.